The area applied for grant is included in Thirtharamapura Sandal Reserve and all the sandal in the area is reported to have been removed. However, as the sandal resources of the State are getting less and less year after year and as the area in question is quite suitable and can be utilised for propagating sandal with advantage, I do not recommend release of the area in favour of cultivation.

ORDER

The C.C.F. ~~vide ref. (1) above, is not in~~ favour of the release of the land as the area applied for is included in Thirtharamapura Sandal Reserve. He further reports that although the Sandal in the area is reported to have been removed, the area in question is quite suitable for propagating sandal and there is also cry for release of land from a long time both from the scheduled caste people and others of the area.

After careful consideration, Govt. are pleased to order the release of the area as shown below:-

Name of village.	S.No.	Area. A- G- A.
1. Thirtharamapura, Honnalli Taluk, Shimoga Dist.,	12	152-0- 0

The above area may be disforested and surrendered to Rev. Deptt. for being assigned to the applicants for cultivation purposes, subject to the terms and conditions as are in force. ~~Before the area is actually surrendered to Rev. Deptt. Malki, if any, should be removed from~~

Issued 17 FEB 1962

for Tirtharamapura and Naraginakere villages

The CCF reported that the area in question is quite suitable and could be utilised for propagating sandal with advantage and it be reserved for the purpose. The area has Sandal as per the report of the CF. There are no sandal trees in the area at present. There is cry for land from a long time both from the S.C. people and others. In view of the demand for the release of land in the area in question this position specifically that some area from Thirtharamapura Sandal Reserve should be released for cultivation and according to the measuring 200 acres from Thirtharamapura and Naraginakere villages in Honnalli Taluk Shimoga District as detailed in the margin be disforested and surrendered to Rev Dept for being assigned for cultivation in favour of Sri Hanumanthappa and others of Belagutti village on such terms and conditions as may be stipulated by the Govt. The CCF in his report has also stated that there are no sandal trees in the area and disforest also said area and hand them over to the Rev. Dept. if any in the said area.
